(In the space provided below, please explain in detail the reasons for the delay in filing a proper reply.)

The entire delay was unavoidable. The root cause for the delay was that the Office Action mailed by the Office was never received by Counsel.

Since the Office Action was never received by Counsel, the statutory period for filing a response expired. The Notice of Abandonment was received by Counsel via mail on October 16, 2008. Counsel then worked with Applicant to prepare a reply to the Office Action, which reply is included. As a result, we hereby file this petition and ask that our Petition to Revive be granted on the grounds that the entire delay has been unavoidable.

If there are remaining issues, the applicants respectfully request that the Examiner telephone the applicants' attorney at 732-578-0103 x212 so that those issues can be resolved as quickly as possible.

(Please attach additional sheets if additional space is needed.)
